Bears

Bears are fuzzy. They like humans. I wonder would bears eat your picnic.

Sloth bears like climbing up trees. Grizzly bears like to eat salmon.

How many miles do they run? Do bears live in trees? Are bears smarter than people? Do bears eat people?

Why does the dad bear get away when people play with the baby bear?

2/14/12

If you see a bear you shouldn't run. You shouldn't scream. You shouldn't show any emotion. You should wait until he leaves. Then you should slowly go away. And if you have a gun with you, you could tranquilize the bear. And then run away!

You might find a bear in a field of sweet grass. Because they like to graze on sweet grass. They eat frogs, berries, salmon, deer, honey, clams, rabbits and rats. They mostly have two cubs.

Day 46

The ball rolls down the hill not knowing when to stop. A little boy picks it up and throws the ball at the wall.

What should I write about?

Am in my class. Am in my class thinking in my chair what to write about. Am thinking thinking thinking what to write about. Now I have what I should write about now I am sliding in my chair writing about what I should write about. Now since I've been thinking what to write about here's my poem: like the fish in the ???? know the fish in the river and how the fish in the ocean swim all around not knowing what to do except swim helpless when the shark is going to bite them helpless when a person's going to eat them.

The New Kid

The new kid sits on the bench lonely like a mouse not moving any thing.

The Battle

The knight's armor shining in the bright light charging at the enemy Knight. Crash. The enemy knight fell off his horse . Hooray the people cheer.

The Magic Eraser

I have a magic eraser. A girl didn't believe it but then she told me to prove it so I erased her.

The Tree House

A tree house is a me house. A quilt can't be house a you can't see house. It's a you and me house.

The Picka Perry Band

This is quite an unordinary band with drums on their tummy and flutes on their nose and cymbals on their hands and a crowd of Boom boys.

When I was born I was in where my mom and dad got married. After a month my dad and mom decided to go to America. So we went in a jet and flew to America. When we got to America we went out of the jet and in a big black car and went a pretty big mansion after a month it was Christmas. Dad got me a humungous Goofy and a humungous Mickey and a hole set of robots. And then dad brought me to Disney Hall . And we sat in first class seats because I like being up close and because dad was the President of the company.
